29.4 These Rules shall come into operation as from the 4th day of September 2019.
1 Interpretation

1.1 In these Standing Orders, unless the context otherwise requires:

1.1.1 ‘Absolute Majority’ means a majority of all the current Members of the Board.

1.1.2 ‘Board’ means the Board of Directors of the Waikato Students’ Union (Inc.).

1.1.3 ‘Foreshadowed motion’ means a motion of which notice is hereby given before or during a debate on another motion, and which the Chair decides is contrary to the intention of the original motion. If the original motion is carried, the foreshadowed motion lapses; but if the original motion is lost, the foreshadowed motion is dealt with as the next business, provided that (except where moved by the Chair) it is seconded before being placed before the meeting by the Chair. In speaking against the original motion, the mover (and seconder, if any) of a foreshadowed motion may explain the foreshadowed motion. ‘Foreshadowed amendment’ has a corresponding meaning.

1.1.4 ‘Meeting’ means, as a case may require, a General Meeting of the Association, or a meeting of any other body using these standing orders.

1.1.5 ‘Member’ means any full member of the Association as provided in the Rules.

1.1.6 ‘Motion’ means a proposition beginning with the word ‘that’ which has been either moved and seconded by members or moved by the Chair; ‘amendment’ has a corresponding meaning.

1.1.7 ‘Resolution’ means a motion carried by or agreed to at the meeting by the required majority.

1.1.8 ‘Simple majority’ means a majority of votes exercised in respect of a motion or amendment.

1.1.9 ‘Present and voting’ means the total possible number of votes that could be cast according to the members present in respect of a motion or amendment (but does not include any casting votes of the Chair).

1.1.10 ‘Votes exercisable’ means the total possible number of votes that could be cast in respect of the motion or amendment if all voting members were present at the meeting and voting, and shall include abstentions.

1.1.11 ‘Votes exercised’ means the total votes that are cast either for or against a motion or amendment including the casting vote of the Chair and abstentions.

2 The Chair

2.1 The Chairperson of any meeting of the Board shall be the President, and where the President is not present the Chairperson shall be a Vice-President as selected by the Board. If none of those persons is present the Chairperson shall be a member of the Board appointed by the meeting.
3 General Conduct of Business

3.1 Subject to Standing Orders 7.3.1 and 7.6, the Chair shall be heard without interruption.

3.2 Every person desiring to speak shall address himself or herself to the Chair.

3.3 When two or more members desire to speak, the Chair shall call upon the member who in the Chair’s opinion first indicated a desire to speak.

3.4 The Chair may by a ruling set a time limit on speakers, whether generally or on the speakers to any particular motion or amendment.

4 Motions

4.1 Except when moved by the Chair, all motions, whether substantive or procedural, shall be seconded. Any motion not seconded may not be debated but shall lapse forthwith, provided that a foreshadowed motion need not be seconded until immediately before it is placed before the meeting by the Chair.

4.2 When a motion has been moved and seconded, and accepted by the Chair, it shall be placed before the meeting by the Chair.

4.3 After a motion has been accepted by the Chair, it shall be deemed to be in possession of the meeting and may not be withdrawn without leave of the meeting. Leave or leave of the meeting means leave granted without dissent from any member of the Association present at the meeting.

4.4 A motion which by leave of the meeting has been withdrawn may not be moved again during that same meeting.

4.5 Except where otherwise provided for, a simple majority shall be sufficient to resolve a motion in the affirmative.

4.6 Except for a procedural motion, and subject to Standing Order 4.7, no motion may be accepted by the Chair which is the same in substance as any motion that during the same meeting has been resolved in the affirmative or negative.

4.7 A motion that has been resolved by the meeting may be rescinded or recommitted by a simple majority vote of the meeting.

5 Amendments

5.1 Standing Order 4 also applies to amendments.

5.2 When a motion has been moved and seconded, and has been accepted by the Chair, an amendment may be moved and seconded by members other than the mover and seconder of the original motion.

5.3 No amendment may be accepted by the Chair which is contrary to the intentions of (ie. directly or substantially negates) the original motion.

5.4 If an amendment is carried, it shall become and shall be stated from the Chair as part of the original motion.
6 Voting

6.1 When the discussion, if any, on any motion is concluded the Chair shall put the Motion to the meeting.

6.1.1 Those in favour of the Motion shall first be called on by the Chair and shall say “Aye” and those of the contrary opinion shall then be called on and shall say “No”, and those abstaining shall then be called on and shall say “Aye”.

6.1.2 The Chair shall then declare the Motion carried or lost as in the Chairperson’s opinion the “Ayes” or the “Noes” (including, where relevant in either case, any abstentions) have it in the requisite majority.

6.1.3 Voting shall be by the voices; provided that if a division is requested by any member with voting rights, voting shall be by show of hands; and provided further that should two members so request, the voting shall be by a secret ballot.

6.2 Abstentions shall be counted as votes for the status quo.

6.3 If upon the motion or amendment being put the voting is declared even, the Chair may exercise a casting vote.

7 Procedural (formal) motions

7.1 The business of the meeting generally or the debate on a particular motion or amendment may be interrupted due to a procedural (formal) motion being moved.

7.2 Procedural motions have the following characteristics:

7.2.1 Except when moved by the Chair, a procedural motion must be seconded.

7.2.2 With the exception of closure motion in Standing Order 7.3.1 and the motion ‘THAT the speaker be no longer heard’ in Standing Order 7.5.1, a procedural motion may not be moved while another member is speaking.

7.2.3 With the exception of closure motions in Standing Order 7.3.1 & 7.3.2, and the motion ‘THAT the speaker be no longer heard’ in Standing Order 7.5.1, a procedural motion may be debated, subject always to the Chair’s power to apply strict order under Standing Order 3.4 and to make a ruling setting time limits on speakers under Standing Order 3.4.

7.2.4 The mover of a procedural motion has no right of reply.

7.2.5 In the case of any closure motion (see closure motion 7.3.1 to 7.3.4);

7.2.5.1 The Chair has discretion whether to accept it or not; and

7.2.5.2 It may not be moved or seconded by the mover or seconder of any motion or amendment to which it is applied; nor, when it is applied to an amendment, may it be moved or seconded by the mover or seconder of the original motion.
7.3 Further to Standing Order 7.2, the following rules apply to the closure of meetings:

7.3.1 "THAT the motion (or amendment) be now put"
(Note: this is the motion most commonly referred to as ‘the closure motion’.)

7.3.1.1 The motion may be moved while another member is speaking.
7.3.1.2 A member making a speech may not conclude the speech by moving the motion.
7.3.1.3 It may not be debated or amended, provided that the mover of the motion or amendment to which it is applied may exercise a right of reply.
7.3.1.4 If it is carried, the motion or amendment shall be put immediately.
7.3.1.5 If it is carried on an amendment, debate on the original motion shall resume.

7.3.2 "THAT the meeting proceed to the next business"

7.3.2.1 The motion may not be moved while another member is speaking.
7.3.2.2 A member making a speech may not conclude the speech by moving the motion.
7.3.2.3 It may not be debated or amended.
7.3.2.4 If carried on a motion, it terminates debate on the motion for that meeting.
7.3.2.5 If carried on an amendment, debate on the original motion shall resume.

7.3.3 "THAT the motion (or amendment) lie upon the table"

7.3.3.1 The motion may not be moved while another member is speaking.
7.3.3.2 It may be debated and previous speakers to the motion or amendment to which it applied may speak to it, but there shall be no right of reply.
7.3.3.3 It may specify a time, date and place at which the motion or amendment to which it is applied shall be taken up.
7.3.3.4 If it is carried as an amendment, the original motion shall also lie upon the table.
7.3.3.5 If it is carried, there shall be a subsequent motion either at the same time or a later meeting to take the motion (and any amendment thereto) from the table.
7.3.4 “THAT the meeting be adjourned”

7.3.4.1 The motion may not be moved while another member is speaking.

7.3.4.2 It may be debated and previous speakers to any motion or amendment then before the meeting may speak to it, but there shall be no right of reply.

7.3.4.3 Adjournment may be indefinitely or to a definite time, date and place.

7.3.4.4 It may be amended only as to the time, date and place of the adjourned meeting.

7.3.4.5 If it is carried, the meeting shall be adjourned immediately.

7.4 The closure motion known as ‘the previous question’ (ie. “THAT the motion be not now put”) may not be moved.

7.5 Further to Standing Order 7.2, the following rules apply to the motion:

7.5.1 “THAT the speaker be no longer heard”

7.5.1.1 The motion may be moved while the member is speaker.

7.5.1.2 It may not be moved or seconded by the mover or seconder of any motion or amendment then being debated; not, when an amendment is being debated, may it be moved or seconded by the mover or seconder of the original motion.

7.5.1.3 The Chair has discretion whether to accept it or not.

7.5.1.4 It may not be debated or amended.

7.5.1.5 If it is carried, the speaker shall be deemed to have completed his or her speech.

7.6 Further to Standing Order 7.2, the following rules apply to the motion:

7.6.1 THAT the Chairperson’s ruling be disagreed with”

7.6.1.1 The motion may not be moved except immediately after the Chairperson has given the ruling (for example, on a point of order).

7.6.1.2 The Chairperson shall, immediately the motion has been seconded, vacate the Chair in favour of an Acting Chairperson, to be appointed by vote of the Board.

7.6.1.3 The mover and seconder only of the motion may speak to it and the Chairperson may reply.

7.6.1.4 After the Chairperson has replied, the motion shall be put to the vote without further debate, in the following form:

“THAT the Chairperson’s ruling be upheld.”

7.6.1.5 If the motion to uphold the Chairperson’s ruling is lost, the Chairperson shall upon resuming the chair give a different ruling in the respect of the subject matter of the original ruling.
7.7 Procedural motions include motions to grant speaking rights, resolve into and out of committee (Standing Order 8), and suspend Standing Orders (Standing Order 14); and the general rules outlined in Standing Order 7.2 apply accordingly.

7.8 In any case where there is doubt as to whether or not a motion is primarily of a substantive or procedural nature, the Chair shall determine the matter by a ruling, subject to the right of the meeting to disagree with the ruling.

8 In-Committee

8.1 At any time the meeting may resolve itself "in committee", and may exclude from the proceedings of the committee any person who is not a Director of the Board at the meeting. The meeting in committee shall not pass any resolution or motion but shall, after resolving itself out of committee, report to the open meeting, which shall forthwith adopt or reject such report. The proceedings during "in committee" shall not be reported or recorded.

9 Point of Order

9.1 At any time any member may address the Chair on a point of order (eg. breach of Constitution or Standing Orders or irrelevance on the part of the speakers) but must immediately state that he or she is raising a point of order and must confine his or her observations to the point of order raised. A point of order should be raised immediately the breach of order occurs. A member called to order should be given the opportunity to explain and the Chair may allow others to speak briefly, but new matters must not be debated. The Chair's ruling on a point of order is final (and may not be discussed) unless a motion to disagree with the ruling is moved and seconded.

10 Point of Personal Explanation

10.1 By permission of the Chair and when no other member is speaking, any member who has already spoken on the particular motion under debate may speak briefly in personal explanation of a remark or action of his or hers which has in his or her opinion been queried, misquoted, distorted, or taken out of context, but must state concisely the point he or she wishes to explain and must keep to that point. The member may not interrupt any other speaker in order to explain, nor may the member employ additional arguments.

11 Point of Information

11.1 By permission of the Chair and when no other member is speaking, any member may speak briefly to correct any substantial error of fact that has been stated to the meeting. The member must state concisely the point he or she wishes to correct and must keep to that point. The member may not interrupt any other speaker in order to explain, nor may the member employ additional arguments.

12 Questions

12.1 By permission of the Chair and when no other member is speaking, questions relating to the matter under discussion may be put to the Chair or through the Chair to any member, but the Chairperson may disallow any questions he or she thinks should not be put. Speeches may not be interrupted for the purpose of asking questions.
13 Order of Business

13.1 At all meetings of the Board the order of business shall be:

13.1.1 Election of a chairperson if necessary;

13.1.2 The confirmation of Minutes of the last preceding meeting which may be decided upon informally and not necessarily upon Motion unless a Motion is demanded by any Board member;

13.1.3 Business arising out of the Minutes;

14.2 The Board shall have the sole right to decide what constitutes business under this Rule and to require anyone present to withdraw from deliberations or to take no part in any decision with respect to that matter. The Board’s decision shall be final.

15 Scope of Application

15.1 The Rules contained within this Schedule shall apply to all Board and General Meetings and, where relevant, to Committees established by the Board or a General Meeting, except when otherwise specified by the Board or General Meeting.

9 Vote Counting

Only the Returning Officer shall decide whether a vote is invalid.

9.2 If there is equality of votes for any office or Board position, a special poll shall be run for that position, not later than five (5) Clear Days after the declaration.

9.3 Immediately after the votes have been counted the Returning Officer shall notify all candidates and send a written declaration of the results to the General Manager of the Association who shall post this on the Association Notice Board.

10.5 No demand for a re-election shall be valid unless accompanied by a deposit of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250.00), to be forfeited to the Association should the applicant obtain in such re-election less than two-thirds of the votes cast for the successful candidate.

10.6 A committee comprising the Returning Officer, the General Manager and the WSU Solicitor shall act as arbitrators who shall hear the complaints and decide if the grounds provided are substantial enough to render the outcome invalid.

10.7 If the outcome of the election, referendum or poll is considered to be invalid, a new election or poll must be held within ten (10) Clear Days after the receipt by the General Manager of such demand.

11 Other Matters

11.1 All matters relating to elections or polls not already dealt with in these regulations shall be decided on by resolution of the Board. Any decision may be appealed by a Special General Meeting called for that purpose according to the rules.
In order to ensure full and fair representation of all sectors of the University community the WSU will establish and maintain a Student Advisory Council.

The Council is a consultative and advisory group chaired by the Vice-President. It has no demand or veto function over the WSU, rather the relationship is one of reasonable and favourable consideration. This means that if any idea or action is brought forward by either party then it should be looked at favourably if it is reasonably practicable to do so.

The Council will be comprised of the following members (who will be entitled to attend any meetings and vote on any matters raised therein):

- WSU Vice-President (Chair)
- WSU Directors
- Students appointed or elected to Academic Board, Divisional/Faculty/School Committees or Class Representative positions
- The President or Chair of any WSU affiliated Club (or their nominee)
- Any other student invited by the Chair

The Student Advisory Council will meet at least 4 x times per Association year, with a minimum of one meeting per each half of A and B Semester. The time, date and place will be set by the Chair and notified to the meeting by public notice given not less than 4 clear days before the meeting.

Any member of the Council who wishes to have a matter considered by the meeting should submit an agenda item to the Chair no less than 2 clear days before the meeting.

The Chair will determine the procedure to be followed at each meeting, and will be responsible for ensuring that all agenda items are given time to be heard.

Within these parameters, the Council may from time to time make guidelines and policies to determine its own operation, membership and processes in order to operate effectively.
SCHEDULE FOUR TO THE WAIKATO STUDENTS’ UNION (INC.) CONSTITUTION

CODE OF CONDUCT AND DISCIPLINARY COMMITTEE

Any Director, or group of 20 members, may complain to the Board if they believe the code of conduct has been breached by a member of the Board due to outrageous behaviour or non-performance based on grounds outlined in the written complaint.

Upon receipt of such a complaint the Board must refer the matter to a Disciplinary Committee made up of an Independent Chair, who both parties agree to in good faith and on reasonable grounds (or failing agreement within a reasonable time, appointed by the Board), and such assistants as the Chair deems necessary. If after making such enquiry or investigation, and hearing such testimony or explanation the committee deems necessary, the committee may make one or more of the following recommendations to the Board:

If no misconduct is found on the part of any party, or if the complaint is found to be without merit, unjustified, frivolous or vexatious:

- Dismiss the complaint

If misconduct is determined on the part of any person concerned (including the complainant):

- Take no further action
- Censure with or without conditions (e.g. require them to make an apology, pay restoration or a fine)

If serious misconduct is determined on the part of any person concerned (including the complainant):

- Any of the actions above
- Termination of any office held

The WSU Board must carry out the determination of the Disciplinary Committee.

The Board may only override the Disciplinary Committee’s decision by unanimous vote of all the other members of the Board (other than the complainant and the defendant) if they determine that there are exceptional circumstances and public interest. If they do so they must publicly report what their reasons are.

Any person who has been removed from the Board under the provisions of this schedule is ineligible to serve as a Director of the Board again.
